Time-Out with Pastor Rob

Solomon states there is a time for everything, a season for every activity under Heaven. I know we all look forward to warmer temperatures, longer days of sunlight with more time spent outside. As much as we look forward to this new time of spring, it forces me to ask a difficult question. Do the circumstances of life determine our true joy? Does our happiness come from the world? When we reflect upon the mercy and grace of Jesus Christ applied to our lives, our joy should never waiver.

Church History

March 9, 320

Roman soldiers leave Christian soldiers naked on the ice of a frozen pond in Sebaste, Armenia. They placed baths of hot water around them to tempt them to renounce their faith. When one did so, a pagan guard—inspired by the fortitude of the remaining Christians—converted and joined the freezing Christians. They were all killed and made famous by Basil of Caesarea and Gregory of Nyssa
