Time-Out with Pastor Rob

This month always brings a sense of expectation. For many, school is nearly out. Warmer weather hints at vacations just ahead. Graduations mark the beginning of a new season of life.

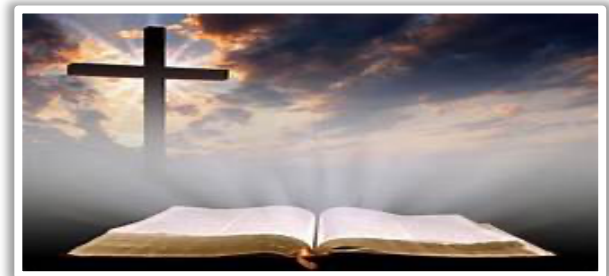

My prayer is that this month fills the church with joy—without leaving us exhausted. I encourage each of us to seek balance between our busy schedules and the rest we need. May we find contentment in the blessings God provides, while resisting the urge to overextend ourselves in the process.

Pastor Rob

Our mother's follow Your example of love, sacrifice, and service in each of our families. Father, we also thank you for our graduates.
